

Snowy Mountain, located near Indian Lake offers a challenging hike with rewarding views. The trail is about 3.9 miles one way, with an elevation gain of around 2,180 feet. The hike starts with a gentle walk through a mixed northern forest, crossing several streams, before becoming steep and rocky over the last mile. There's a scenic overlook about 3.2 miles. The summit features a historic fire tower, built in 1917, that you can climb for 360-degree views.

Map created by Andy Arthur on 12/12/2025 in QGIS 3.44.5-Solothurn. Contains NYS GIS and DEC data with additional campsites added by Andy. More maps at andyarthur.org.

