

Stillwater Reservoir is a remote, man-made lake in the western Adirondacks, located in the Town of Webb in Herkimer County. It is a popular destination for backcountry camping, fishing, and boating, with undeveloped shoreline and numerous islands.

Map created by Andy Arthur on 10/27/2025 in QGIS 3.44.3-Solothurn. Contains NYS GIS and DEC data with additional campsites added by Andy. More maps at andyarthur.org.

