

Hatch Creek State Forest is a 1,283-acre forest in New York offering diverse recreation. Visitors enjoy hiking, biking, horseback riding, and cross-country skiing on state forest roads. It provides a quiet, scenic, uncrowded experience for wildlife spotting.

Map created by Andy Arthur on 11/13/2025 in QGIS 3.44.4-Solothurn. Contains NYS GIS and DEC data with additional campsites added by Andy. More maps at andyarthur.org.

