

The Neversink River Unique Area is a 6,580-acre preserve in New York's Catskills, featuring a spectacular gorge and waterfalls. Known as the birthplace of American dry fly fishing, the area is popular for hiking and fishing but prohibits camping and swimming.

Map created by Andy Arthur on 11/18/2025 in QGIS 3.44.4-Solothurn. Contains NYS GIS and DEC data with additional campsites added by Andy. More maps at andyarthur.org.

