

Greenville Forest Preserve Detached Parcel. Outside of the Catskill and Adirondack Parks are certain parcels that have been dedicated as forever wild Forest Preserve, that are not within the formal parks. One can be found a few miles east of Greenville in Greene County, rolling 101 acre country covered primarily by white pines.

Map created by Andy Arthur on 12/29/2025 in QGIS 3.44.5-Solothurn. Contains NYS GIS and DEC data with additional campsites added by Andy. More maps at andyarthur.org.

