

This topographic map depicts the Roseboom Hill area in Alaska. The map is oriented with Roseboom Hill Road running horizontally across the upper middle. To the west, Weigel Road and Darling Road are shown, with Putman Road branching off to the south. To the east, Roscoe Jones Road runs vertically. The terrain is characterized by numerous contour lines, with elevations ranging from approximately 1300 to 2000 feet. A prominent green-shaded area represents a forested region. Key features include the Pot Hole Dam, Metal Gate, and two disabled access points labeled #1 and #2. The map also shows several property owners, including Jorgensen, Robert M Jr, Spellman, R M Jr Trust, and others. A scale bar at the bottom left indicates a distance of 1 mile. An inset map in the top left corner shows the location of the area within the state of Alaska. The map is bordered by a grid with coordinates ranging from -74.83 to -74.77 and 42.72 to 42.74.
