

Genegantslet State Forest is 3,201 acres sprawled along the ridge line to the east of the Genegantslet Creek in McDonough and Smithville. Following the ridgeline, it provide access and protection to the Genegantslet Creek for trout fishing, several small ponds, a lean-to and roadside campsite.

Map created by Andy Arthur on 10/30/2025 in QGIS 3.44.3-Solothurn. Contains NYS GIS and DEC data with additional campsites added by Andy. More maps at andyarthur.org.

-75.80 -75.78 -75.76 -75.74 -75.72 -75.70

42.50

42.48

42.46

42.44

42.42

42.40

