

Located in Oneida County, Webster Hill State Forest spans 926 acres of tranquil, rolling woodlands. It features steep terrain, scenic views, a small pond, and deep ravines carved by Chase Creek. The forest is a mix of natural hardwoods and diverse evergreen plantations.

Map created by Andy Arthur on 1/12/2026 in QGIS 3.44.6-Solothurn. Contains NYS GIS and DEC data with additional campsites added by Andy. More maps at andyarthur.org.

